

NATIONAL COMMANDER VISITS CENTRAL MAINE
BY LLOYD WOODS, STATE ADJUTANT, THE AMERICAN LEGION

State Commander Brenda Dearborn of the Emerson and Lane Post 132, Richmond, announced today that the National Commander Fang Wong of New York will be making his official visit to the State of Maine on November 4, 5 and 6, 2011.

Commander Dearborn stated that National Commander Wong will arrive in Portland in the afternoon of November 4. On November 5, Saturday, Commander Wong will visit and have breakfast at the William R. Bold Post #181 in Litchfield. He will then travel to the Smith-Wiley Post #4, Gardiner for a visit with post members and guests. The National Commander will then proceed on to the Harry J. Conway Post #135, Sabattus for lunch and visit with members and guests. Later in the afternoon, Commander Wong will visit the Goodrich-Caldwell Post #6 in Hallowell. Saturday evening, a banquet in honor of National Commander Wong will be held at the Emerson and Lane Post 132 in Richmond. The National Commander will be departing the area on Sunday to make another visit in another Department as the next of his many stops during his year as Commander of the world's largest veteran's organization, The American Legion.

All veterans in the area of his visits are welcome to come and visit with Commander Wong whether they are members of The American Legion or not. It is hoped that a good turnout will be at all locations and that we show the National Commander what we think of our veterans of the area.

The contact person is Lloyd Woods, Department Adjutant, The American Legion Department Headquarters, Waterville, Maine. (207) 873-3229; email: lloyd@mainelegion.org.